Strandee Nisels Coming Back Via Mushroom Farm

Strandee Niseis from Mio Village of Wakayama Prefecture are returning to Canada under a special scheme. Under the plan, five Niseis are expected to arrive in Toronto within a week, while seven others have had their return approved and are awaiting passage.

These Niseis are having their passage fare advanced by the Maple Leaf Mushroom Farm in Scarboro, Ont., and in return they will work at the farm for a length of time and repay their passage loan by a set weekly deduction. The Mio Village Association of Canada is working with the Maple Leaf farm and is in full approval of the project whereby Nisei strandees may be able to return to Canada. These Niseis are to receive prevailing wages at the farm.

The scheme started when a former worker at Maple Leaf farm who went to Japan on the repatriation plan wrote to his former employer seeking assistance to return to Canada. When the Mio Association heard of this, they approached the Maple Leaf owner with the plan whereby Niseis in Mio Village wishing to return to Canada would work at the farm in return for assistance in getting back to Canada.

Stage of Life

A one-week-vacation-with-pay is supposed to provide an endless montage of wonderful things to do and a lot of fascinating places to visit.

A lot of my time in my sadly lamented vacation away from ugly typewriters and dirty printer's ink was spent last week, however in a big bus depot in one of the wayside cities on the American portion of the border.

It was one of those situations that shouldn't happen to a hobo. There wasn't a single hotel room to be found in the entire city—even the flophouses were jammed to capacity. It happened that the city was the host for 50,000 convention delegates at the time, or so an amused YMCA official and some taxi-drivers told me when I asked them where I could find a bed where I could put my shoes under.

Also the night was unseasonably chilly and wet. Therefore, sleeping in the park was out. I looked at the warm lights of the houses lining the streets with a vicious kind of envy.

I decided, then, with a kind of an Oriental fatalism, to wait out the night in the bus depot—some eleven hours before the next bus for Toronto was scheduled to pull out. I leaned my back against the harsh and hard contours of the seat and grudgingly contemplated the midnight scene.

The Fury of Sound

I soon became a moveable part of the depot's furniture, or if you have an imagination like mine, part of a fascinating stage of life with the acting parts played by total strangers.

Here is action fast and slow, sounds strange and vibrant.

There is the nasal intermittent sound of the loudspeaker announcing arrivals and departures of buses for places that have a fascinating sound to them—"last call for buses loading at platform 4, 5, 6 for New York, Chicago, Boston!"

Here we have the insistent ring of telephones—the steady drone of low conversation . . . the spirited clicking of high-heel shoes on the tiled floor and all eyes look up to follow a pretty girl walking like a prize heifer and disappearing beyond the door . . .

The door opens and sound from the street floods in with suddenly released energy—sounds of taxicab horns, the adolescent cries of newspaper vendors plying their

Wins New Denver Community Award

NEW DENVER, B. C. — Beverley Yachiyo Tamura, a 1951 graduate of Lucerne High School at New Denver, won this year's Community Award of 1951.

The prize is annually presented to an all-round high school student graduating from Lucerne High School at New Denver with a High School diploma. Besides being a top student, Beverley distinguished herself in extra curricular activities by taking second in the Knights of Pythias oratory contest and first prize for West Kootenay in an essay contest sponsored by the B. C. Cancer Society.

A daughter of Mr. and Mrs. S. Tamura of New Denver, Miss Tamura plans to continue her studies at a business college.

W'peg Buddhist Church To be Officially Opened

WINNIPEG — A 3-day celebration starting on Sept. 1 will mark the official opening of the Winnipeg Buddhist Church built by the Manitoba Buddhist Association.

The opening day of the celebration will begin with a parade of the "ochigo". An English service will be conducted by Rev. Takashi Tsuji of Toronto. Many prominent citizens are expected to be present for the first-day ceremonies.

Tea will be served following the service and an interesting attraction is being planned.

On the second day, Rev. Kawamura of Picture Butte will conduct a service in Japanese. A Japanese film will be shown to conclude the second day.

A banquet to commemorate the new church will be held on Sept. 3. It will also mark the Fifth Anniversary of the Manitoba Buddhist Association. Those wishing to attend are asked to contact Mr. Teranishi, 190 Edmonton St., Winnipeg.

Deny Japanese to Work On West Coast Farms

WASHINGTON — State Department and Congressional representatives here have denied a rumor circulating in the capital that the U.S. is planning to import Japanese farm workers for west coast farms.

A California Congressman said the idea might have some merit, but that as far as he knew, it had not been discussed in Congress. He said it would require special legislation to admit laborers, even on a temporary basis.

The Congressman said it might be advisable to give some thought to admitting Asians as temporary workers during the peak agricultural seasons as one method of aiding their home countries.

Airline May Hire Nisei Girls As Stewardesses On Canada-Orient Run

With the anticipated increase in air travel to Japan from Canada after the signing of the Japanese peace treaty, Canadian Nisei girls may be hired as airline hostesses shortly. This was intimated by an official of the Canadian Pacific Airlines to The New Canadian shortly.

There is bound to be heavier traffic to Japan with the conclusion of the war, he said, and felt that with more passengers of Japanese ancestry being carried by the planes, there was every likelihood that the CPA would seek Japanese Canadian girls to cater to these passengers.

Several Chinese-Canadian girls fly on regular flights to the Orient at the present because of the large number of Chinese passengers aboard. These flights usually carry two stewardesses, one of Chinese ancestry, the other Caucasian.

That Canadian Nisei girls would be hired rather than girls from Japan is likely because of CPA's experience with Chinese girls. Originally the CPA tried to recruit their stewardesses in China, but they proved unsatisfactory and were replaced with Canadian girls of Chinese ancestry.

Attends World Assembly Of Youth Meet at Ithaca

By GEORGE OBOKATA

Ithaca, N. Y.

On the tree-studded, 2,400-acre, 60-building campus of Cornell University (reputed to be the most beautiful college campus in North America located on a hill overlooking the city of Ithaca, I witnessed the finest triannual World Assembly of Youth (WAY) which was held here from Aug. 6 through to Aug. 16, with the final wind-up on Aug. 21.

More than 500 youth leaders representing 64 non-Communist Nations from as far away as Pakistan, India, Singapore, New Zealand, and Indonesia were in attendance at the invitation of the Young Adult Council of America. Japan was invited to send observer delegates and accepted by sending six. They were Miss Hiroko Higuchi, Board of Education Nagano Prefecture; Miss Hisako Kuniyuki, girl scouts; Miss Michiko Sato, YWCA; Yukihara Maeda, SCAP; Tadamasa Hirai, boy scouts; and George Kato, Junior Red Cross.

There was a Nisei in the American delegation hailing from Utah.

This inaugural WAY General Assembly met to discuss the theme, "Youth and Human Rights." The program of WAY is inspired by the U.N. Declaration of Human Rights and the young adults of all nationalities were meeting here to discuss and work on problems of freedom, peace, and economic and political democracy as set forth by the U.N. Charter.

In a busy 11-day program, the delegates followed a set timetable which consisted of attending one or more of the 12 workshops on subjects such as discrimination, duties and responsibilities of youth and culture, and forums on such as the 'Impact of WAY on the world situation' and "Methods of finding a philosophical and practical basis for WAY". In these discussions there was a special emphasis on the underdeveloped areas of the world.

After a hard day's work, the

THE PEACE TREATY WITH JAPAN

The peace treaty conference in San Francisco next week while having little or no effect on the Nisei will nevertheless be watched by them with much more than passing interest. It will mean the final act of ending the war between the land with which they are racially associated and the country of their birth. While the stigma of being an "enemy alien" has pretty well worn off with the lapse of six years since Japan's surrender, it will wipe out all official traces of the state of war between Japan and Canada.

In reply to matters concerning immigration or re-entry of persons of Japanese ancestry to Canada, government officials have frequently written or stated that it must await the signing of the peace treaty before it can be considered. It is hoped that with the signing of the treaty, such matters which have long been delayed will be expedited satisfactorily.

ASSISTING STRANDED NISEIS

Projects whereby stranded Niseis in Japan would be advanced passage to return to Canada in return for certain services, generally a period of employment with the benefactor, cannot be unconditionally endorsed. They can be subject to abuses.

In the case of the Nisei boys from Mio Village coming to a mushroom farm in Scarboro, Ont., a Japanese Canadian organization approves the project as being an excellent opportunity for Niseis who are anxious to get back to Canada but who are unable to find a sponsor. However, there is no assurance that it will similarly work out in other instances.

In all haste to return to Canada, many Niseis will jump at any chance to get back without a thought to the terms under which they are receiving assistance, what type of employment they will be receiving or whether they will be paid the prevailing wages. This is liable to result if such projects are approved without a thorough investigation of the type of employer and the conditions which he offers.

IMMIGRATION FOR SIX MONTHS OF 1951

Nearly 80,000 immigrants entered Canada during the first six months of 1951, the Hon. Walter Harris, Minister of Citizenship and Immigration has announced.

The total of 79,785 newcomers as of June 30, 1951, exceeded by 114 per cent the figure of 37,286 for the corresponding period of 1950, and actually surpassed by nearly 6,000 the total of 73,912 recorded for the entire year of 1950.

There was a noteworthy rise in British immigration, with 14,130 British immigrants arriving from overseas as of June 30, 1951, as compared to 6,738 in the same period of last year, a percentage increase of 110.

Northern European races contributed 27,427 immigrants to the grand total, as against only 9,751 a year ago. The number of French immigrants was more than quadrupled, the comparative figures being 2,272 and 502; and Belgian immigrants numbered 1,190, as against 220. An outstanding increase was noted in the case of immigrants from the Netherlands, who numbered 11,297, as against 5,304 in the same period last year.

More than 8,000 Germans entered Canada during the first six months of the year, the comparative figure being slightly more than 2,000.

Marked increases were also recorded by other races. For example, Danish immigrants totalled 2,305 compared to 617; Finnish, 900 over 265; Norwegians, 316 and 106; Swedish, 313 and 54; Swiss, 510 against 219.

An increase in the number of immigrants from the United States was also noted, the 1951 six-months total of 3,688 exceeding by more than 400 that of the corresponding period of 1950.

All other races combined totalled 34,540, compared to 17,553 in the six months ended June 30, 1950, an increase of 97 per cent.

From China, 1,304 persons have entered Canada during the six months period ending June 30, 1951. During the comparative period last year, there were 629 Chinese immigrants.

The first six months of 1951 have brought only two persons from Japan as immigrants. Last year there were eight entries during the first half year.

The total of 79,785 may be broken down by sex as follows: Adult males, 37,472; adult females, 22,183; children under eighteen, 20,130.

The occupational breakdown on arrival was as follows: farming, 13,494; skilled workers, 11,309; unskilled and semi-skilled workers, 10,517; clerical, 2,262; professional, 1,609; trading class, 1,190; female domestics, 2,715; others, 2,28[illegible]. These people brought with them 14,455 dependent wives; and 19,471 children.

Ontario received 45,[illegible]82 of the total number of immigrants, with Quebec absorbing 15,204; Alberta, 6,430; British Columbia, 5,649; Manitoba, 3,700; Saskatchewan, 1,953; Nova Scotia, 891; New Brunswick, 639; Prince Edward Island, 114; Newfoundland, 113; and Yukon and the Northwest Territories, 10.

Turning to operations overseas, Mr. Harris announced that during the first half of 1951, 115,507 applicants were given final approval to come to this country. This figure includes 39,916 British subjects, practically three times the number of 13,427 British subjects who entered Canada from overseas during the entire year of 1950. The Paris office reports a noticeable rise in approved applications from citizens of France which now exceed by a considerable margin the total number of French immigrants for the whole of last year, which was 1,11[illegible].

While expecting that immigrants would continue to come forward in good numbers throughout 1951, Mr. Harris made it clear that the number of immigrants to be admitted this year, and in any given year, would, of necessity, be influenced by the absorptive capacity of the country.

Japan and Canada Delegates to Peace Parley In Same Hotel, Swarms with Nippon Newsmen

While other newsmen have yet to show up and still seem indifferent about the coming Japan peace treaty conference in San Francisco, Japanese correspondents are already on the beat, on the lookout for something to wire back. By last week, still nearly three weeks before the start of the parley, ten Japanese reporters were on the scene and earlier this week the President Wilson brought several more.

One of the reporters on hand is K. Sakakibara, who was in Toronto last spring as the secretary of the Welfare Society for Japanese abroad, and writes to The New Canadian that they are on the prowl for news to send to their respective papers in Japan.

While, especially with the Russian announcement that they will attend, nothing very definite can be predicted at present, today [illegible] conference [illegible] agenda is known.

The parley will [illegible] Sept. 4 with an address by [illegible] Truman, and the second day is expected to be taken up by an address from various chief delegates. On Sept. 6, Premier Shigeru Yoshida is due to speak and if all goes well the treaty would be signed that day. By Sept. 7, it could become history, but no one can be sure of anything, writes Sakakibara.

The Japanese delegates will stay at the Mark Hopkins Hotel. The Canadian representatives have also made reservations there as have the British and the French. The Soviet group has yet to put in a bid but they are expected to stay at the St. Francis.

Premier Yoshida will not stay at the Hotel. He is to be the guest of the president of the General Shipping Company, a Mr. Scott, who is an old friend of the Japanese prime minister.

The Japanese delegation will be welcomed to San Francisco at a banquet on Sept. 5, sponsored by the local Japanese community. Application to attend this dinner has come from far away as Washington, D. C., and Seattle.

During the time of the Peace Conference, there will be an exhibition of ancient Japanese art works at the De Young Museum here. It is said to be a priceless Japanese collection, and the best ever assembled at one time, including exhibits held in Japan.

Giant Kaleidoscope

Here in the environs of the depot as the night wore itself painfully away, I could see the different types of characters about which novels have been written, I could see life in all its kaleidoscopic facets; I could see a weird assortment of people each absorbed in their private little destinies.

A blue-shirted policeman brusquely raps at the foot of a miserably dressed and dozing being who has apparently sought shelter for the night. He is not allowed to remain because the fickle vicissitudes of life have forced him to steal a few hours of sleep in lonely bus stations such as this as a substitute for lice-infested flophouses.

Here are tourists resting their feet on luggage that bear [illegible] from many places . . . [illegible] commuters waiting irritab[illegible] honeymooners with a rare [illegible] in-a-lifetime kind of stardust [illegible] their eyes and a new [illegible] for life . . .

正氣取戻した日本

その煽りをうけて金と名のつくものなら何んでも高値に賣れるので屑鐵や古鐵などを探しまわるジャンク漁りがはやり出し、あちこちの塵捨場を掘り返えしたり、ラバー・ブーツをはいて泥まみれになつてドブ河の底まで渫つたりする新商賣が行われている、かくして拾い集めた古金は高價に取引されて相當好い利廻りになるという話。

これは使用價値のある物を無雑作に捨ててしまつたことすてられた廢物から再び價値を見出そうとする働きである物の値打は時勢の移り變りで一高一低、極めて興味ある變化を呈するものであることを深く思わされる、それはただに物についてばかりではなく思想の面、複雑な社會の働きにおいても窺がわれる現象である。

由來日本人のうちには眞髓のお留守なもの、自主性を欠いて輕々しく模倣をもつて足れりとするものが少なくない戰前の排外思想から急轉直下終戰後は拝外思想と早變り、古いものは何でも棄ててしまう、新しい外來ものなら何でも先きを爭うて眞似るという風潮に支配されるのであつた

然かし、そうした戰後派の風潮もこの頃では漸く底をついたものか、すてられた廢物が特需景氣で値が出るように古い勢力がまた蘇り返えす徴候が著るしく見られるようになつた、終戰直後のことであつたが、戰時中海外に亡命して戰う祖國に冷たい批判を續けていた赤い人々を恰も凱旋將軍でも迎えるかのごとく騒いだ社會が近來は正氣をとり戻したとでもいうものか當時幅をきかした極左の勢力はとみに衰退を示し、それに引かえて保守派の擡頭が注目されるようになつた。

去る四月の地方選擧の結果も保守系統の大勝に歸している、更に今回追放者十九万人のうち十七万人ばかりパージを解除されるが、それらの人々はかつての中堅層であつたのであるからその復活の結果は一層保守線の急激な強化を招來することであろう、一旦踏みにじられた土手の芝が慈雨に浴してまた新芽をふき出すような様相である。（續く）

原子爆彈の火傷

▽一流映畫館の支配人が、わざ〳〵『レラノ』の映畫を見てくれと招待してきたのでその映畫は昨年度のアカデミー賞を獲得したものでもあるので見に行つたのだが、私の胸を打つたのはその映畫でなく併寫されたニュース映畫の原爆六周年を迎えた廣島の復興という場面であつた

▽壊れた建物がそのまま保存されてある爆心地を中心に復興した廣島のメーンストリートを寫し、それから城跡より全景を收めたもので、フィートにすれば短かいニュース映畫であつた

▽原爆の破壊力の偉大なことはみんながよく承知のことだが、百聞は一見に如かず、原爆畫面を通じてでもよい、原爆のため慘めな人々がこんなに多くいるのだぞ、ということをもつと〳〵知らせねばならないと思う

盛夏の樂書【十五】
梅月生

秋になるので

新聞のような仕事をしている者にとつて一ばんいけないことは、物を落着いて深く考えている時がないということだ。仕事の必要から、心の糧を取り入れる心がけを持ち、また可なりにつとめもするのではあるが、それはウノミであつて、消化しない。それどころか、かみこなしもしないで、出してしまうのである。たとえて言えば胃擴張患者である。食わずさらいでは居られないから、食うには食うが、味わったり、こなしたり、榮養を吸收したりする時がない。味氣ない話ではある。

露木君も添え手紙のなかに「河相氏は晩香坡の時代と異つて、戰爭中は反軍部であつたため、公職追放からは全然除外されていた人」と書き、ちよつと妙なものを感じたらしい。これまた、うたた感慨にたえないというところだつたであろう。

赤川牧師の心境

ウイニペッグの赤川牧師から次のように印刷したお手紙を頂いた。去る六月末に現職から引退した同師の心持がよく現われている名文だとおもう。「涼しい風の吹き初むる頃ともなれば想ひを整へてそれらの事を筆にしたい」と考へて居られる赤川師の希望が實現するようにいのりたい。

印度は講和會議に出席せず
日本と別個條約結び外交關係樹立

(一)臺灣を中共に歸屬させるアレンヂメントが全くない

(二)ソ連の樺太および南樺太の所有を承認する條文がない

インドは英米共同作製の講和條約には調印しないが、日本と別個の平和條約を結んで外交關係を完全に樹立する意向であることを明らかにしている、しかし米政府當局ではインドの講和會議出席拒否は調印を妨害しようとするソ連の宣傳戰に好個の材料を與えるものとして憂慮している

招請受諾は四九國

五十餘カ國に招請を送つたところ、今日まで講和會議に出席すると回答してきた國家は四十九カ國で、共產國はソ連はじめポーランド及びチェコスロバキアである、招請を拒否している國家はインドのほかビルマおよびユーゴスラヴイアで、未定の國家はエジプト、シリアおよびレバノンである

ソ連、條約に調印か
日本と外交關係確保へ

【東京發】日本のある消息筋ではソ連は政治的得策として對日講和條約に調印するであろうと信じている、かかるソ連の動きはソ連の宣傳戰と逆行するものだが、ソ連は今までに一度ならず意表外な行動に出ているとしてソ連調印說の理由を次の通りあげている

(一)ソ連は利害關係の上から日本と外交關係を確保するために講和條約に調印するものと信じられる

(二)ソ連は大使館員に相當する代表團を現在日本に持つているが、講和成立後は自然の成行として對日理事會は解散されるだろうから、ソ連代表團をそのまま日本に踏み止らすには調印する他はない

(三)もちろんソ連は日本と單獨に講和を結んで同樣の結果を得ることはできるが、目下のところ日本外務省はそれにはいささかの乘氣も持つていないのである

日本航空、國際的運轉を目指す

六月以來いまにも飛びそうに宣傳されてきた民間航空だけに旅客の申込みも多く岩田雄、大佛次郎など文士連中の豫約希望者が數十名に達していた

英加全權等と同宿
日本代表のエチケットはよいか

共產軍、一大攻勢か

ソ連聲明
獨自の申入行う

【ニューヨーク發】グロイミコ・ソ連首席全權以下一行は廿七日クキン・エリザベス號で當地に上陸したが、グロミイコ全權代表は船上で「桑港の講和會議にはソ連はソ連獨自の要求を提出するだろう」と次の通り記者團に語つた

すでにソ連政府が聲明した通りソ連代表は對日講和條約に關するソ連獨自の申入れを提出する、もともとこの申入れは會議上で發表されるであろう

全國に盛り返す
右翼團が二百餘

【東京發】日本共產黨では講和會議を目前に全國的な平和闘爭い火ぶたを切つて積極的な活動を行つているのに對し再軍備の問題がもち上つて舊軍人層をふくむ右翼陣營の動きが再び活發となろうとしている、法務府特審局の調査によるとすでに全國を通じ約二百餘の右翼團体が結成され、これらの團体の活動には一層[illegible]の眼が注がれている

ロツキー新報廢刊

既報の通り去る六月より休刊中であつたヴァンクーバー市、日本語新聞ロツキー新報はいよいよ廢刊となり、すでに活字及小道具一部は賣却濟となつている由、前金拂の購讀者も數多あるものと見られるがまだ返金については何等の發表もない。過去十八年近く發行してきたロツキー新報も遂に廢刊となつた理由は財政的困難のためだといわれる

No Coming Stars

'Old Men' Still Dominate Nisei Tennis in Toronto

Tennis as a sport is not supposed to appeal to everybody, but the way it is, it's not attracting any Nisei youngsters, at least in Toronto. At least, that seems to be the appalling case as eight 'old men', five of them over 30 and the remainder nudging that age, advanced into the quarter-finals of the Nisei open tournament which will continue and conclude play over the Labor Day week-end.

With nary an upset, the veteran survivors eliminated what few younger players (under 25) there were and this week-end will see the following matches: Johnny Tanaka (defending champion) vs. Matt Matsui, George Ide vs. Tom Iwasaki; Mush Fukumoto vs. George Hirano; Frank Matsui vs. Tom Nobuoka.

The only surprise of the tournament was the showing of Ben Kunihiro who picked up the game only two years ago. He upset Edzy Tsujimoto in the initial round and extended Frank Matsui to three sets before bowing out.

Along with the men's consolation singles quarter-finals, these matches will get under way at 8:30 a.m. on Sept. 2. Consolation matches are Roy Shin vs. Edzy Tsujimoto, George Hirano vs. Tats Harada, Yasu Nobuoka vs. Don Yokota, Tomio Nishikawa vs. Roy Kubota.

In the ladies division, semi-finals have been reached and this Sunday will see 1950 champ and Bussei triple winner Mary Ebata vs. Ginny Kawasaki and Shirley Morita vs. Chie Yanagisawa. The evenly-matched consolation semi-finals will pit Kiyomi Anpi against Michi Isozaki and Kay Fujiwara against Masa Hamaguchi. These games start from 10 a.m. on Sunday.

Competition in all three doubles divisions will also play this Sunday.

Chairman Fuz Fujiwara announces that the men and women's novice groups are still open for entries and they will be accepted up until Sunday and any time through the week at Trinity Courts. He admits that girls' entries have been scarce and hopes to see more beginners register for the competition.

To present the trophies to the many champions who will be decided on Sept. 3, a dance under the chairmanship of Roy Shin will be held at the U.N.F. Hall on Sept. 21. More announcements about this dance will be forthcoming from Chairman Shin.

Big JC Golf Meet Also on Heavy Labor Day Sports Program

The Rouge Hills Golf Club will be the site of the biggest JC divot diggers meet of the year when the Toronto Japanese Canadian Golf Club sponsors its annual Labor Day tournament on Sunday, Sept. 2.

A total of 52 entries is expected to tee off with ten members of the Montreal Japanese Canadian Golf Club including the veteran Herby Tanaka making the trip to Toronto.

Late entries will be still accepted. Those interested in competing should contact H. Kutsukake, GR. 1307.

All Set for Tourney Nittas Give Line-up

With three players added to bolster the team, George Takaoka's Nitta Machinery team, which will represent Toronto in the coming Softball Tournament, is all set. The team has a couple of games this week and following that, it hopes to get in one more workout before taking the field against Montreal on Sept. 1.

Barring unforseen changes the Toronto team will probably line up like this: Art Watanabe ss, Tad Miura cf, Mickey Hayakawa rf, Maw Mori 1b, Tommy Hayakawa 3b, Yuki Kameoka 2b, Ken Fukusaka p, Mits Kamino lf, Joe Matsumoto c.

Visiting teams are expected to arrive in Toronto by early Sept. 1 morning. The New York team is due to be in the city at least a day ahead of the Tourney and may arrange a workout.

A large crowd especially during the Sunday afternoon contest is expected to be on hand. Officials of the tourney were hoping for a generous support by the fans towards the collection as the tournament is costing a tidy sum.

Vancouver Nisei Visit Seattle, Hometown Vets Sweep Games

By TED OTSU

VANCOUVER — After a decade of absence, the Vancouver Nisei baseball team travelled to Seattle, Washington, on Aug. 19 to mark the first time a Canadian Nisei team from the West Coast had visited the city since the days of the Asahi club, which used to compete in the city's open tournament.

The team, however, dropped both games, 6-4, 11-7, to the Seattle Nisei Veteran's Committee baseball team which is composed of members of the former 100th Battalion Team which fought during the Second World War and also of the 442nd Combat Team of "Go for Broke" fame.

The Seattle team is classed as Senior "A" calibre while the Vancouver Nisei fall into the Senior "B" classification which meant that the latter team was playing under a distinct disadvantage. The Vets are managed by Shiro Yamaguchi and coached by Suyama, both 442nd veterans.

The opening game at George Town [illegible] saw the Vancouver [illegible] a [illegible] lead in the early part of the game, only to have the Vets rally for [illegible] 6-4 victory.

Best man with the willow for Vancouver was [illegible] Matsuzaki with two for three, one [illegible] a double. Catcher [illegible] Oikawa with two singles and Seichi Tahara with a double were other hitters. [illegible] a leftfielder for the Vets, clamed three of the Vets' hits while G. Iwasaki clouted a double.

Defensively, the best man on the field was flashy Hayamoto who covered his shortstop position with some brilliant foot and glove work.

George Fukuyama took the loss for the Nisei while Yoshi [illegible] pitched all the way for the win for the Vets with Deguchi handling his slants.

In the second game, the Seattle team showed their superiority when they overwhelmed the Vancouver Nisei 11-7 as the reserveless Canadians found the going a little heavier. Saito, Tsuji and Kinoshita powered the Vets' attack, each clouting a triple.

"Smiling boy" from Slocan, B.C., Nappy Sakamoto, who cavorts in left-field for the Nisei, did yeoman service by rapping out two [illegible] as well as relieving starter George Fukuyama in the second inning when the iron man of the staff ran into trouble. First-sacker Sub Koyanagi got the only home run of the game in the fourth frame.

Battery for the Nisei Vets was Kinoshita and Shimizu with G. Iwasaki behind the plate.

Despite the double setbacks, the Vancouver Nisei team hopes that this exhibition series will be the start of many more annual games.

TNT, Hurricanes to Clash, Winner Will Enter Finals

TNT and Hurricanes advanced into a sudden-death playoff game for the dubious chance to meet undefeated Best Cleaners as the round-robin series in the Toronto Nisei Baseball League continued.

TNT eliminated Robbies while Bests bested Hurricanes in last Sunday's games, leaving both TNT and Hurricanes with a 1-1 record. Game-time is 10 p.m. at Christie Pits on Sept. 2. Probable pitchers will be Dave Sakamoto (5-3) or Joe Motokado (0-0) for TNT and Kaz Amemori (3-3) for Hurricanes.

In the opening game, TNT ousted Robbies who suffered their second defeat, with a 6-run splurge in the first frame when a shaky infield failed to support Ken Mitsui who started for Robbies. Joe Motokado who usually dons catching paraphernalia, was a surprise starter for TNT and made his debut a successful one in the 9-5 win. The converted catcher struck out five and walked three.

Roy Kobayashi with a three-run homer and Aki Furukawa with two hits helped in giving Motokado his big run cushion while Sumi Sora's two-run four-master and Seigi Takata's triple and single provided what punch the Robbies offered.

TNT	9	6	2
Robbies	5	4	7

Joe Motokado and Doc Tsujimoto; Ken Mitsui and Dan Mitsubata.

Who Will Stop Bests?

Best Cleaners moved into a [illegible] and a bye into the finals when they routed Hurricanes 7-2 with Harold Miwa throwing a 4-hitter. This was Bests' eleventh straight win with[illegible] a loss.

[illegible] Harafuji with a triple and three rbi's and Tucker Uchikura with a 2-run homer led the Bests' stickmen while Wakida of the deflated Hurricanes hit a two-run single.

Best Cleaners	7	6	3
Hurricanes	2	4	3

Harold Miwa and Bob Ohashi; Kaz Amemori and Tosh Omoto.

Potent Bests Enter Intermediate Finals

Best Cleaners entered the Toronto Intermediate Baseball League finals as they were the only undefeated team in the round robin series that were just concluded. They will now meet the runner up Toppers in a two out of three finals. Victories in two games last week preserved their spotless record.

On Friday, Aug. 24, the Bests defeated the much-improved Toppers 6-2 in a tight ball game with Tucker Uchikura going all the way to rack up the win. Tom Kamino's timely 2-run single was the payoff blow.

In the final game of round robin play on Sat., Aug. 25 at Millon Stadium, Best Cleaners eked out a thrilling 4-3 overtime win from Tigers. Art Watanabe was the hero of the day when in the extra inning he [illegible] the only hit off the Tiger pitcher which proved to be the turning point of the game.

Ken Nakamichi was brilliant in the chucker as he went the distance for the win.

Technicolor in Japan

Writing to The New Canadian, Toshio Tanaka of Shochiku Films in Ofune, near Yokosuka, reports the Japan's film industry will be making more technicolor films in the future. It is still in the early stages in Japan, and the technique is much to be desired in comparison with American productions.

He says technicolor productions have only been started in earnest since last fall.

ATTEND

delegates were often invited to the parties held by the different national groups and these quite frequently lasted until the early hours.

On the lighter side of the Conference, there was the N.B.C. Symphony Orchestra, the American Ballet, folk dancing by national groups, Hall Johnson Choir and the famed American Negro dancer, Pearl Primus. Miss Primus who has made a study of the origin of modern "jive" dancing by following the basis steps from their origin in Africa, through the slave days in the new world, and to the present day.

She kept her audience enthralled by her talk and performance of the authentic steps as done through the succeeding changes of time and locale. Her accompanist was a native of Nigeria who made the hand drum actually sing in different tones and phrases. It was a treat when he performed solo numbers on his drum.

In her introduction, she stated the reason that prompted her to make this study was that through culture her people might be better understood.

I had a talk with Miss Primus who told me that she is to perform in Israel and at a command performance for the President of Lebanon this winter. She was enthusiastic as I mentioned to her of the race relation work in Canada and was anxious to visit Canada. Although she did not know when she would perform in Canada, it would be one worth while seeing.

Well-known speakers at the Conference were the American Secretary of State Dean Acheson, Mrs. Eleanor Roosevelt and Madame Vijaya Lakshmi Pandit, the Indian ambassador to the United States and Mexico. I was able to meet Madame Pandit during an off-moment.

The sessions were closed one day for relaxation when the delegates were guests of Ithaca citizens at a picnic to the famous Taughannock Falls National Park on Lake Cayuga, a 10-mile trip by a fleet of chartered buses. Here games such as volleyball, football and softball contests between the U.S. delegates and the "internationals" were played. Movie cameramen and news photographers were very much in evidence at the picnic. The former made sound pictures of the unrehearsed sing song in which all joined in. Many took the short walk up the [illegible] rock bed of Taughannock gorge to the beautiful Taughannock Falls, [illegible] the Rockies.

Personal Notes

TORONTO — At an engagement party held at the Great China Restaurant, the engagement of Mikiko Nishikawa, sister of Shoichiro Nishikawa of Toronto, to Jazo Nishimura, second son of Mr. and Mrs. Jutaro Nishimura of Toronto, was announced on Aug. 12.

Mr. and Mrs. S. Mori and Mr. and Mrs. T. Tanaka are the baishakunin.

Youngest to be Chosen Queen of Nisei Week

LOS ANGELES — Pretty 19-year old 5 ft. 2 in. Aiko Ogomori, a student, was crowned "Miss Nisei of 1951" on Aug. 19 at the Nisei Week Festival's opening event at the Los Angeles Breakfast Club. Over 900 persons gathered to witness the swank social event.

Four girls, gowned in white taffeta and each carrying a bouquet of American beauty roses, preceded the queen as her attendants. Aiko Ogomori made her entrance wearing the traditional red velvet queen's robe and proceeded to the stage where the 1950 Miss Nisei, Sachi Kazunaga, placed the symbolic tiara on her head.

Miss Ogomori, who reigned over all festivities during Nisei Week, followed her crowning with a visit to the Los Angeles's mayor's office the next day.

The 1951 queen has the distinction of being the youngest queen selected in the history of Nisei Week. She turned 19 on Aug. 10.

Lethbridge Nisei Social Begins With Fall Frolic

LETHBRIDGE, Alta. — Heralding the coming of the autumn season with accent on more social activities, the Lethbridge JCCA is presenting its Fall Frolic on Friday, Sept. 14. Scene of the event is the popular Henderson Lake Pavilion.

With music to be supplied by Norm Thomas, dancing at the pavilion will be from 9 to 1. Admission is $1.50 per couple with dress optional.

Draws 150 to Gibbons Pk. London St. Thomas JCCA

LONDON, Ont. — The Annual London-St. Thomas JCCA Community picnic was held at Gibbons Park on Sunday, August 19. More than 150 gathered to take part in the full afternoon's sports program. It included many visitors on hand from Kitchener, Toronto, Ingersoll and Brantford.

The highlight of the afternoon's events was the tug-of-war between the single and married men which was won by the latter with the moral support of their partners. However, the singles evened up by beating the married in a softball game. It was won in the final inning.

Bussei Annual Dance

Friday, Sept. 28, is the date of the Toronto Bussei's 6th Annual Dance to be held at the Nisei's favorite U.N.F. Hall. It's still a month away but nevertheless, everyone is reminded to keep this date open by the Bussei dance committee.

Geraldton Holds First JCCA Picnic

GERALDTON, Ont. — Nearly a hundred people, travelling by cars, trucks and chartered bus, attended the Geraldton Japanese Community picnic on Aug. 5, held at Lahti's Old Townsite, the first of what is hoped to be an annual event. Some of those on hand were visitors from Fort William and Manitoba.

Starting out at 10 a.m., the picnickers had an enjoyable day with the weather co-operating perfectly. An attractively illustrated program outlined the day's events which included races of all sorts, bingo and a monster fukubiki in which there were prizes for everyone. Topped by a first prize electric clock there was a variety of items ranging from soap to table lighters, most of them donated by local merchants.

The children were also able to fish and swim. Free ice cream, pop and hot dogs were consumed in surprising quantities.

Fred Doi was in complete charge of the arrangements with able assistance by Mr. Maeba.

The end of a perfect day came all too suddenly at 7 p.m.
